The musical score is written for Bells and Soprano. It begins with a tempo marking of 'Slowly' and a metronome setting of 90 or so. The key signature is one flat (Bb) and the time signature is 6/4. The score is divided into systems, with measures numbered 1 through 34. The Bells part features a series of sustained notes and rests, while the Soprano part contains the vocal melody. The lyrics are: 'Since that day years have passed. Scars remain. Memories last. So little can we bring, but this small'. The score includes various musical notations such as rests, notes, and dynamic markings like 'mp' (mezzo-piano).
